

You've heard his arrangements
in General Conference – now be inspired by his personal instruction.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn from visiting instructor, Jim Kasen, LDS composer and organist.

Brother Kasen has a degree in Organ Performance and a Master of Music degree in Choral Conducting. His mentors have included Dr. Mack Wilberg, Dr. Ronald Staheli, and Dr. John Longhurst. He has published numerous choral arrangements and has completed a seventh volume of organ works.

On March 3rd, you can take one of his workshop sessions in Choral Conducting or hear about his compositional techniques he employs in writing arrangements for the organ. Don't miss this great opportunity — register today.
